

WITH JOYOUS HEARTS FROM
JOHN AND KIM O'MALLEY

November–December, 2017

Dear friend of the O'Malleys,

God's mission to redeem the world defines our daily tasks and life's work. Your investment makes us available to present the Gospel. You help us assist churches and missionaries with their Great Commission work. We appreciate you enabling us to fulfill the call of God.

Last month, God used your investments to allow me to be on the campus of Ambassador Baptist college. Each Fall the college holds a missions conference. Their conference is about exposing students to missionary opportunities and mission agencies. During the conference, I spoke with more than 100 students. The Lord allowed me the opportunity to speak in classes to encourage students to serve the Lord. Thank you for making that opportunity possible.

During November and December, I assisted eight churches with their Great Commission efforts. A missions conference is an opportunity to keep the mission of God before God's people. The conference allows people to renew their commitment to give toward God's mission. Thank you for investing in the Great Commission efforts of your church.

The Lord gave me the opportunity to be a part of two new missionary interviews. The interview is the last step in vetting new missionaries for our agency. These new missionaries will be going to Brazil and the Dominican Republic. Thank you for making it possible to help the world get new missionaries.

Kim and I wish you the brightest and the most joyous celebration of our Savior's birth. Thank you for what you do to help us bring the Gospel to a world who knows nothing about redemption or adoption. Thank you for supporting us to help in the work of the Great Commission.

Sincerely yours,

John O'Malley
